Attachment to Claim – Basis for Your Claim

• Plaintiff sues Defendant for breach of contract
• VP of Western Service at Defendant's corporate office acknowledged in writing that Defendant failed to provide top tier internet service that Plaintiff paid for over a period of 24 months and agreed that Plaintiff was owed credit
• Despite crediting Plaintiff's account for a couple of months, Defendant continued to fail to provide adequate service, nullifying credit
• When confronted, Defendant offered to credit Plaintiff's account using the cost of their lowest tier service plan and deducted credits used while fixing service at full price to minimize amount owed
• Plaintiff protested this offer as "bait and switch" and violation of Consumer Fraud and Deceptive Business Practices Act
• Defendant has since stopped working with Plaintiff and applied no further credit beyond the couple used to fix the service during the 24 month time frame
• Service cost $150/month before taxes, for a total of $3000 in service not received
• Plaintiff suffered damages in lost revenue and time due to repeated service calls and over the phone support to address issue
• Plaintiff seeks $2000 in damages to cover court costs and time lost revenue for work impeded by lack of service
• Plaintiff seeks full refund of $3000 for service not received and $2000 in damages.
