TITLE 67 STATE GOVERNMENT AND STATE AFFAIRS

CHAPTER 31

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND WELFARE -- MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

- 67-3105. STATE GRANTS-IN-AID. In administering any funds appropriated or made available to the director of the department of health and welfare, the director shall have the power:
- 1. To require as a condition for receiving grants-in-aid, that cooperating counties and municipalities shall bear the proportion of the total expenses of furnishing services or aid as is fixed by law relating to such grants.
- 2. To terminate any grants-in-aid to any county or municipality if the laws providing such grants-in-aid and the minimum standards prescribed by the director thereunder are not complied with.
